

Please stop any attempt to allow our media to be controled by any form of consolidation. It has already gone too far. You know that this is just another step to limit information to the public and undermine our freedom. Just how much power do the power hungry need?